Locked In A Summer Daze

We have reached peak summer here on Maryland's Mountaintop. The heat of August has settled in bringing with it warmer temps giving you even more reasons to escape to the cool mountains of Maryland. For many, this means a return to school buses and earlier bedtimes, for some it means the excitement of fall and pumpkin spice whatnots to come, and for us it means we are getting busy enjoying the last days in the lake and prepping for the times when we can watch it freeze over from the ski lift. Maybe we are getting ahead of ourselves, but you too might be spending your Friday afternoon in a heat induced summer daze wishing and waiting for the ski laps to come. We're here to tell you that summer isn't over yet, it's only fleeting. And as winter approaches, our team continues to make resort-wide winter improvements regularly reminding us that the countdown to winter is on.
