All Eyes On The Forecast

The first flakes of the season have hit the weekly forecast, leaving snowsports enthusiasts like you on the edge of their seats! With the anticipation of snowfall this weekend, we spent last week prepping and pressurizing the snowmaking system. All water valves have now been officially switched from golf course irrigation to snowmaking, and testing has begun on the Front Side and East Ridge.

Waterlines are pressurized, pumps are pumpin', and our snowmakers are catching some Z's while they still can, knowing that in a few weeks, it will be all systems go on Maryland's Mountaintop. So, keep your eyes to the skies and your thoughts on SNOW!

Our team is ready for winter, are you? All winter activities, from lift tickets, lessons, and rentals to snow tubing and mountain coaster, are available to buy and book in advance online! PLUS 4-Pack Sales are LIVE!
