STOP & SMELL THE ROSES

It's the little things in life that make it so enjoyable. Mountaintop dance parties, the way the sun reflects off Deep Creek Lake, music drifting from Stage Wisp, and that little inkling that snow will soon make its way back to our mountains.

No matter where you are or what you're doing, taking a moment to slow down, look around, and appreciate the little things can make all the difference. Sometimes, you have to stop and smell the roses, or in our case, the mountain air.

WINTER CAN'T WAIT

Upgrades, Improvements, Transitions

Our teams are working hard as winter plans come to fruition day after day. From a planned leadership transition and increased snowmaking capacity to infrastructure maximizing and lift maintenance, the mountain is alive with anticipation for the winter to come. Winter can't wait. Can you?
