CHECKING IN

We've seen the signs. Frost covering the grass. The extra few minutes waiting for the car to warm up before heading out the door. Heavier jackets making their way to the front of the closet. The unmistakable feeling of excitement that comes with knowing winter is just around the corner.

There's no denying it. Winter is checking in.

And once it arrives, there's no slowing down. Our teams are well on their way to winter, pressuring the snowmaking system, scheduling ski school orientations, tuning up the new rental fleet, and racing towards opening day.

Consider this your sign to get ready. Tune up your gear, clean up your snowsuit, and remind yourself there's no better place to spend winter than right here in Maryland's Mountains. Winter is on its way. Now all that's missing is you. Check in for a full season of shredding and unforgettable moments at Wisp Resort.

WINTER IS HARD AT WORK

Upgrades + Improvements

Where do you see yourself in 30 days? We invite you to picture yourself on the slopes, with new infrastructure improvements increasing snowmaking capacity across the mountain and powering our winter season. Winter's hard at work, and we can't wait to see what this year has in store.
